

Southern Tier Singers' Collective

Happy New Year from STSC!

We are starting the new year off with two concerts over the next month.

Together they will take you on a musical journey through joy, anguish, renewal, and redemption.

Returning to Love: An Evening of Italian Renaissance Madrigals

Binghamton University
Art Museum
Tuesday, January 29th, 7:30 pm

Experience the joy, anguish, and renewal of love in this delightful evening of song, featuring music by Gesualdo, Marenzio, Monteverdi, Vecchi, and Wert. STSC members Elizabeth Chilton, Christina Taylor, William Culverhouse, Paul Schleuse, and Andrew Walkling will be performing one-voice-per-part in the intimate setting and lovely acoustics of the Binghamton University Art Museum.

O Vos Omnes: Music of Repentance and Redemption

St. Patrick's Church,
Binghamton
Saturday, February 9th, 7:30 pm

The singers of STSC return to the beauty and majesty of St. Patrick's Church in Binghamton for a concert of music in anticipation of the Lenten journey. The program will explore the rich tapestry of post-Renaissance motets in works by Johann Sebastian Bach, Johannes Brahms, Francis Poulenc, Pablo Casals, and Morten Lauridsen, including sumptuous pieces for six-part and eight-part choir.

Warmest wishes for 2019 from all of us here at STSC!
